

My name is Kellie Jardine. Originally from Whitehorse, Yukon, I am now an independent editor and owner of Clearly Read Editing, in Coldstream, BC.

My educational background includes a Bachelor of Arts in Canadian history from the University of Calgary and an Editing Certificate from Simon Fraser University. I have gained experience with editing throughout my educational and career life, but I am new to the world of freelancing. I am a thorough, passionate, and dedicated editor and would love the opportunity to strengthen my skills, while helping self-publishing authors send their very best work to print.

I am available to take on projects and can currently devote 20-25 hours per week to editing projects. My rates depend on the number of manuscript pages:

Manuscripts up to 20 pages long:

Proofreading: $3.00/page

Copyediting: $4.00/page

Structural/Stylistic editing: $5.00/page

Combination edits (example copyedit and structural edit): $6.50/page

Manuscripts over 20 pages in length:

Proofreading: $19.00/hour

Copyediting: $21.00/hour

Structural/Substantive Editing: $23.00/hour

Combination edits: price per hour of most complex editing required (ex. copyedit+ structural edit= $23.00/hour

I can be contacted by phone at 250-309-5987 or by email at clearlyread@shaw.ca.

I look forward to the opportunity to help authors realize their dreams!

Sincerely,

Kellie Jardine
